Courses for Adults with Living Learning English

“ A Business English course really helped me to prepare for my job interview ”

Thank you Living Learning English; the one-to-one experience is the best way to improve your communication skills in a short time.

My teacher helped me with the specialised vocabulary I need for my work. The text book was perfect for my needs and the teacher and family were extremely welcoming.

I would recommend this course highly.

Courses for Young Learners

Young Learners benefit from a home tuition course because we offer your child a course personally designed for their needs, with close supervision in a warm, comfortable home, with a caring, professional teacher.

Course Fees 2026	15 hours/week	20 hours/week	25 hours/week	30 hours/week
Young Learners 1:1 (ages 14–17)	£1495	£1720	£1945	£2170
Young Learners 1:1 (ages 10–13)	£1795	£2020	£2245	£2470
YL Summer 2:1 (ages 14–17)	£1295 per student

Young Learners 1:1 >

A Young Learners course home tuition 1:1 course is for ages 10 - 17. Your child is carefully matched with their teacher and family. You can choose when you want to come (at any time of the year), how long you would like to stay, and the number of hours tuition per week.

Summer International Matching 2:1 >

Choose a Summer 2:1 course and we will match your child with a student of a different nationality.

Your child's language learning partner will be carefully selected to match age, interests and level of English.

This is an excellent opportunity to share the course and to make a new friend from another country.

The matching service for Summer 2:1 courses is available from the last week in June until the end of August.

Lessons

The lessons will consist of a range of all skills - reading, writing, listening, speaking, vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, study skills and culture. At the beginning of the course, the teacher will assess your child's level of English and requirements and plan a programme of study.

Family Time

Time spent with the family during meals and evenings is a wonderful opportunity for your child to practise spoken English and to use the language studied in the lessons. They will learn as much during these times as in the lessons!

An Excellent Programme of Activities

On a Young Learners course, your child can choose the activities and excursions that they would like to do, tailored to his or her interests, fully supervised by the teacher. All costs for excursions in the local area are included in the course fees.

You can choose from a huge range of local excursions
and activities

At Living Learning English, our low teacher to student ratio ensures that each individual is cared for and safeguarded to the highest standards.

Living Learning English has developed policies and procedures to ensure all our pupils are safe and confident whilst in our care.

Safeguarding Young Learners

LLE is committed to the safeguarding of every child and vulnerable adult in their care. Our robust policies, high level of training, professional standards, and accreditations means we are at the forefront of safeguarding international students in the UK. Our teachers and host families welcome ALL children by providing a nurturing, non-judgemental and child-focused environment where children can live and learn English safely with their mental well-being and welfare, being our number one priority.

Your Academic English Journey

We specialise in helping international students to achieve their dreams. Living Learning English has a successful track record of enabling international students to join British schools, and to go on to complete their studies at top universities.

This morning I received my IELTS result and I'm very happy with my score. My teacher was excellent and her help was fundamental. Thank you for your contribution to my success.

Your personal academic English pathway

We work with you to create your personalised academic pathway, including a detailed educational plan. We work closely with schools, home tuition teachers and educational agents to help you achieve your goals.

First step: prepare to study in the UK

Learn the academic skills you need to communicate at school and study in English.

- Online lessons – academic English and subjects in English from 8 years of age.
- Experience British life on a home tuition course in the UK.
- Receive advice and guidance from our experienced team on studying in the UK.
- Prepare for boarding school entrance tests to help you win a place at your dream school.

Success! You are joining a UK boarding school

- Get ready for academic study with online lessons.
- Adjust to life in the UK by spending a few weeks living with a teacher – immerse yourself in the culture and language, then join your school with confidence.

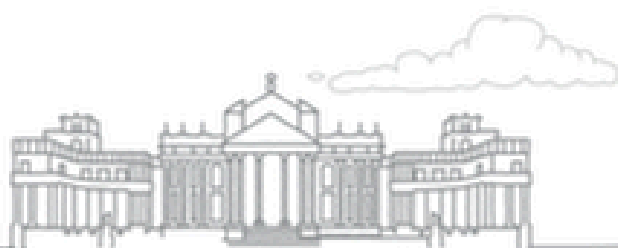

Support along the way

Our support continues when you arrive in the UK. From extra tuition in English or pastoral support, we'll be here for you.

- A dedicated 1:1 online teacher can help you to prepare for English language exams and success in GCSE, A-Level and IB examinations.
- Home tuition in school holidays: courses are designed to meet your individual needs and to support you with the English you need for school.
- First-class safeguarding: our top priority is ensuring you are safe, happy and making good personal and academic progress.

The next step: university

- Create your personal statement: work with an experienced tutor, to make your statement shine and demonstrate the best you can be.
- Mentorship helps you make a successful transition from school to university.
- Benefit from online and home tuition in the academic skills needed at university level.

Vibrant, metropolitan cities

One of the world's most visited cities, England's buzzing capital is well worth the visit and has so much to offer, from magnificent architecture, history and culture to cutting-edge fashion and food.

Academic Courses

Whether you are aiming to enter a UK school or university, or to open up further career or life opportunities, our high quality academic English tuition will accelerate your journey.

Quintessentially British

With its rustic rural charm, rolling hills, vibrant market towns and picture-perfect villages, the Cotswolds offers nearly 800 square miles of unspoilt countryside.

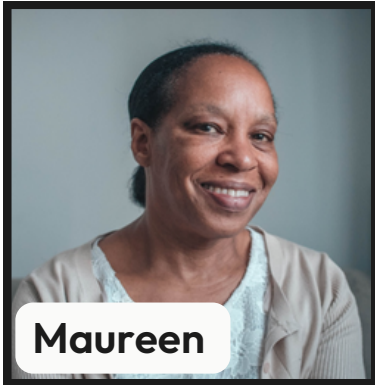

An Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the range of hills in west-central England is packed with picturesque villages made of honey-coloured stone, ancient pubs and some of Britain's most beautifully preserved medieval churches.

Our Teachers

Our teachers enjoy teaching English, hosting, and welcoming people from all over the world. Your teacher will have a comfortable, relaxing home, a flair for hospitality and enthusiasm for sharing their language, culture and location.

All our teachers have an English Language Teaching qualification, complete proficiency in English and an in-depth understanding of UK culture.

Maureen

Location: London

Courses Taught: General English, English for Exams, and Young Learners homestay courses.

Maureen lives in a four-bedroom house with her husband and her two adult daughters. She holds a CELTA qualification and a BA(Hons) in History.

“I enjoy teaching and hosting students and love learning about the different cultures and the countries they come from. I have met so many lovely students and I still hear from many of them from time to time.”

Keith

Location: London

Courses Taught: General English, Business English, Academic English, Science and Young Learners homestay courses.

Keith lives in a beautiful five-bedroom Edwardian house with his wife and son. He holds CELTA and PGCE qualifications, and a BSc in Science from St. Andrews University in Scotland.

The family enjoys travel, cooking, languages and visiting art galleries. Keith is interested in architecture, carpentry and DIY, plus cycling and swimming.

Lorna

Location: Hertfordshire

Courses Taught: General English, Young Learners and Academic English.

Lorna lives in a large 1950's house with her family. She holds a CELTA and Cambridge DELTA, as well as a BA(Hons) in History with Economics from the University of Manchester.

“Hosting students in my home is a wonderful experience as I get to know so many interesting people from all walks of life. It's like a cultural exchange as I show them a small part of our beautiful country and they experience life in an English family, whilst also achieving their learning goals.”

Lessons

Your lessons will cover all skills (reading, writing, listening, speaking, vocabulary, grammar and pronunciation) and culture according to your language learning needs.

Usually the tuition is in the morning, leaving the afternoons and evenings free for activities, visits and excursions or private study.

At the beginning of the course, the teacher will assess your level of English and requirements, and plan a programme of study. You will be assessed again at the end of your course to record progress.

A full report of lesson content, achievement, and recommendations for future study will be available after the end of your course, as well as your certificate.

Social and Cultural activities

The social programme is built around your needs and wishes so that, whatever your interests, you can fully enjoy your stay. You can choose from a wide range of local excursions and activities including sports (for example golf, tennis, swimming, walking), cultural activities such as museums and exhibitions, bowling, cinema, theatre, restaurants and local attractions depending on the location of the course.

Our towns and cities have excellent shopping centres, tourist attractions and traditional pubs. Britain is famous for its many magnificent historic stately homes and gardens. During the summer there are many special events including music festivals and local carnivals.

Your excursions and activities will be planned at the start of the course with your teacher. Your teacher will accompany you on two half-day or evening local excursions per week (one-week courses) plus one day trip at the weekend (courses of two weeks or longer). Please state on the booking form any specific activities you would prefer and we can then advise on cost and availability.

Adult courses: all entrance fees to museums and travel by public transport etc. for the teacher and student must be paid by the student.

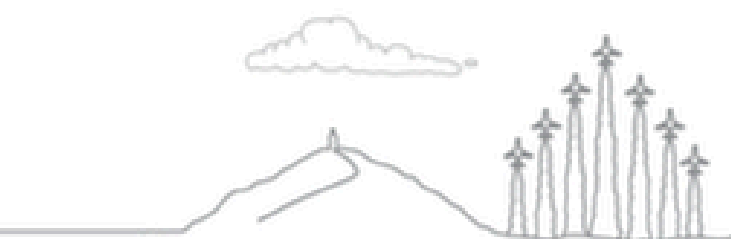

Young Learners courses: fully inclusive of all costs for local activities and excursions.

Lessons and life with your teacher

Family time

Time spent with your teacher during meals and evenings is a good opportunity for you to practise your spoken English and to use the language you have studied in your lessons.

Living with your teacher also gives you a unique opportunity to experience and learn about the UK culture and way of life.

Your week

Example of a one-week, 15-hour General English course for adults

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Sunday		Arrival between 3pm and 9pm. Get to know your teacher and family	Evening walk in the local area
Monday	Lessons (3 hours)	Orientation with your teacher	Private study, free time or conversation
Tuesday	Lessons (3 hours)	Free for study, shopping or sightseeing	Visit a traditional British pub
Wednesday	Lessons (3 hours)	Afternoon excursion with your teacher	Visiting your teacher's family or friends
Thursday	Lessons (3 hours)	Free for study, shopping or sightseeing	Film night at home
Friday	Lessons (3 hours)	Afternoon excursion with your teacher	Relaxing with the family and conversation
Saturday	Departure between 9am and 12pm (one-week courses) or full day excursion to a local place of interest (two weeks +)

This is an example week. Your actual programme depends on your age, interests and the length of your course, and is planned with your teacher at the start.

Travel

How to get to the UK

A local transfer from the nearest bus or train station to your teacher's home is FREE. If you are a fairly confident traveller, it is easy to get from the airport to the teacher's home town by bus (www.nationalexpress.com) or by train (www.nationalrail.co.uk).

Airport Transfers: If you require a personal airport transfer, we can arrange this with either your teacher or one of our highly trusted taxi drivers – the cost will be advised at the time of booking and is dependent upon the distance from the airport to the teacher's home.

Arrival at your teacher's home should be scheduled for Sunday afternoon/evening (3pm to 9pm) and departure on Saturday morning (9am to 12pm). Transfers can be arranged for flights arriving or departing during these times. Any flights outside these times will incur an additional charge or we may recommend a hotel stay prior to arriving at or departing from your teacher's home.

Please note that all Young Learners are required to book a transfer service with LLE.

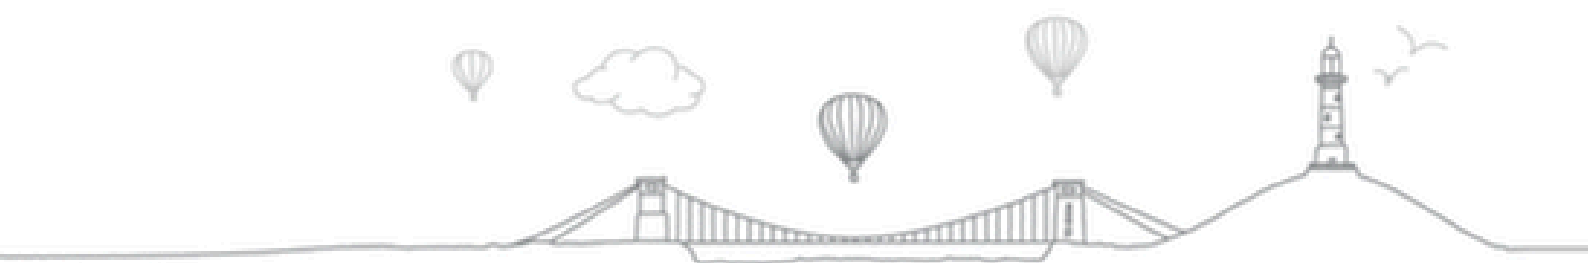

Insurance

Living Learning English offers you FREE travel insurance with GuardMe. Your insurance policy will be issued with your course booking documents. Cover commences as soon as you leave home on the first day and ends when you reach home on the last day of your trip.

The International Student Policy covers:

- personal injury and medical expenses
- personal money, passport and documents
- personal belongings
- repatriation
- course fees
- cancellation or curtailment charges
- personal liability
- personal belongings
- travel delay, missed departure, delayed travel

Quality Assurance

We provide quality assured English tuition, making your language learning experience as enjoyable as it is effective.

Exceptional standards and attention to detail are built in to our services. This commitment applies through every stage of your journey with us, from your initial enquiry to booking, your arrival and your course in the UK.

Accreditation

British Council

Living Learning English is accredited by the British Council for its Home Tuition English courses.

English UK

English UK is the national association of accredited English language centres in the United Kingdom. English UK is associated with the British Council and all members must be fully accredited.

Quality English

Living Learning English is proud to be a Quality English licensed school. Quality English schools are renowned for their quality and reputation and are all nationally accredited.

Professional English teachers, and a track record of success

The growth of our services demonstrates our high standards. From a handful of teachers providing homestays and tuition in Bristol in 1995, today we provide a UK-wide network of professional English teachers.

Our growth has occurred naturally and organically as students have spread the word about our quality-assured English tuition with family, colleagues and friends. Meanwhile, teachers have recommended us to other teachers. We are fortunate to be able to work with wonderful people offering first-class hospitality, giving their time and attention so that you can have the best possible experience.

A very productive immersion. The family was great, we had lots of fun, I worked hard and made good progress in a very pleasant atmosphere.
I just want to come back next year!

We prepare students for a life in English

- Academic Skills: research, essay writing, presentations, project work, preparation for group work and discussion activities.
- Wellbeing: dedicated safeguarding officer, 1:1 care from our teachers, welcome and check-in calls from our team.
- Cultural immersion: real-world learning through visits and activities in English, preparation for school, university and work.
- Learner progress: individual study plan, achieving personal study goals, using student learning styles, study skills and methods training.
- Soft Skills: developing adaptability, time management, effective communication, problem solving strategies and digital literacy.

Our student satisfaction

We are immensely proud of the feedback we receive. This demonstrates we can deliver the English language courses that you really need, and the difference that we have made to people's lives – helping you progress in your education and career and providing life-changing experiences.
